

SIERRA PREPARED TO SHOW COLORS IF ASKED

"Masters of American merchant vessels will be spared much inconvenience and possible delay if they will promptly display colors and registry number when a war vessel is sighted," was the gist of instructions given Capt. H. C. Houdelette and his officers in the Oceanic liner Sierra before its departure from the Golden Gate for the Hawaiian Islands with less than 50 cabin passengers.

That the United States government anticipates the stoppage and search of merchantmen flying the American flag during the war period is evidenced by the notice, marked "important," which appears in large type on all pilot charts and nautical publications for the month of December.

The documents are issued by the hydrographic office of the United States navy department and skippers are reminded of the conditions now prevailing in the Pacific by a series of ample notifications.

The Oceanic boat is reported to have met with no interruption in the voyage to Honolulu. For four days the vessel steamed through seas likened to a millpond. There was little wind to retard the progress of the liner, which arrived off quarantine before daylight.

Among 49 cabin passengers were a delegation of baseball players from a Pacific coast organization who will remain for some weeks in the islands. A small number of tourists was included in the list of travelers.

Twenty-six steerage passengers arrived in the Sierra. Pursuant to a general cargo report, 2781 tons of general cargo, which includes much freight for local importers for the holiday trade.

Reaching the port this morning were 246 sacks of mainland mail.

Several hundred spectators gathered at Pier 19 to witness the arrival of the vessel.

Rough Trip for Schooner Hind.

Not only did the schooner Robert R. Hind, laden with 700,000 feet of lumber for Honolulu fall in with heavy seas, but a strong gale served to greatly delay the passage from Port Townsend, which was completed yesterday following 41 days at sea. When within 500 miles of the Hawaiian islands, Capt. J. Wikander sighted three Japanese vessels believed to be the battleship Hizen, cruiser Asama and a collier, the fleet being headed in a southeasterly direction and apparently steaming at about 12 knots.

The Robert R. Hind was detained outside the harbor for fumigation and brought to a berth at a territorial wharf today. While roughly handled by the elements, the vessel met with no damage. The cargo was brought to the port intact.

Kentuckian May Take New Crop Sugar.

The first of the new crop of Hawaiian sugar destined for the east coast of the United States may be supplied the American-Hawaiian freighter Kentuckian, an arrival from New York by the way of Panama, San Francisco and Seattle yesterday. The big merchantman is at Pier 19 where about 8000 tons of cargo will be discharged. The Kentuckian brought a quantity of livestock including hogs and blooded cattle for local importers. According to Capt. De Lano the vessel met with fine weather and slighted no steam or sailing craft on the voyage. Two steamways were landed at the port.

Bark Rithet Sailed With Passengers.

The bark R. P. Rithet will sail from San Francisco with eight passengers in addition to a large cargo of general merchandise for the islands, according to the report brought to Honolulu today with the return of the Oceanic liner Sierra. The Rithet was expected to depart from the Golden Gate within a few days under command of Capt. Jackson. The bark now represents the only windjammer carrying passengers between the Pacific coast and the Hawaiian Islands.

The Japanese cruiser Idzumi, accompanied by a smaller British war vessel, was within 60 miles of the Hawaiian Islands but a few days ago, according to the belief expressed by Captain R. H. Mather, master of the schooner Fred J. Wood, that this morning was towed into the harbor to be discharged of 820,000 feet of lumber consigned to the City Mill Company.

Beriberti is a scourge that stalks the decks of the Japanese liner Kryo Maru today riding at anchor off Honolulu harbor, while the great increase in the number of cases among the 350 Asiatic passengers is a matter of grave concern to the officers of the unfortunate steamer which since September 5 has been detained in Hawaiian waters pending an opportunity to proceed to Mexico, Central and South America.

Filled to capacity with cotton, representing one of the heaviest shipments to depart from Galveston, Texas, the big British freighter City of Naples, en route to Japan and China, was reported off the port early this afternoon. The vessel is said to have for about 500 tons of bunker coal.

The City of Naples is the second cargo carrier proceeding by the way of Panama canal to visit the islands to replenish its stock of fuel.

KUHIO OPPOSED TO EMPLOYMENT OF FOREIGNERS

Delegate Elect Says He Favors Bill for the Employ of Citizen Labor

Vigorously protesting against the employment of non-citizen labor and stating that unless the plantations of Hawaii are filled with citizen labor these islands will lose their status as a territory and be put under a commission form of government, Jonah Kuhio Kalaniana'ole, reelected delegate to Congress, spoke to several hundred persons at the Republican ratification rally at Ala Park Saturday evening.

It was a voice from the audience which shouted "Why don't you introduce a citizen labor bill?" that started Kuhio in his denunciation of the importers of non-citizen labor. He argued that what these islands want is citizen labor, and unless immigration be stopped and the citizenry of Hawaii changed it will not be long before the territory will go under a commission form of government.

The delegate then turned his remarks to the attacks, as he put it, which have been made against his "not being on the job in Washington."

"I promise to go back as your delegate and keep on the job," he said. "As I have for the last 12 years. Because I did not succeed in getting anything from Congress the people must not think I was not on the job." Then he added, "But you don't have to be on the job in Washington to get things through."

There were many speakers during the evening. Walter Combs, chairman of the Republican county committee, presiding at the meeting. The delegate spoke last. Others who spoke were John C. Lane, W. T. Rawlins, Robert W. Breckons, Eli Crawford, Charles Chillingworth, Charles Arnold and R. W. Shingle.

PROMINENT HAWAIIAN IS LAID TO REST

The funeral services of Joseph Kai-jones Aea, who died at the Waikiki residence of Queen Liliuokalani late yesterday afternoon, were held at 10 o'clock this morning from St. Andrew's cathedral, interment being in the upper Maunaloa cemetery. Aea, who was a protégé of the queen, was 32 years old at the time of his death. He received his education at Lolani College and at the Kamehameha Schools and, until he was taken ill a few months ago, was stenographer and clerk in the city clerk's office. He leaves a wide circle of friends both on Oahu and on the other islands.

The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company will act as agents for the vessel that is, bearing about 17,000 bales of cotton, valued at $590,720. The shipment will be distributed at Kobe and Yokohama. The steamship also carries 1000 tons of pig iron, supplied at Pensacola, Florida.

It is the intention to furnish the vessel the required amount of fuel with a view of its despatch for the Orient late this evening or at an early hour tomorrow morning.

The British steamer Infanteo, with 7000 tons of Oriental cargo on board bound for New York and Boston, remained at the port from Saturday afternoon until early Sunday morning, during which time 450 tons of coal was placed on board. The Infanteo called at the Philippines where about 4000 tons of raw sugar was shipped for east coast refineries. The Infanteo, commanded by Captain L. R. Evans, carried a crew of Chinese. The vessel was coaled from Pier 5.

Presumably due to bad weather the Matsun Navigation steamer Lurline from San Francisco with 13 cabin passengers and about 4000 tons of general cargo will be delayed in making this port. A late wireless message states that the vessel will arrive at quarantine tomorrow afternoon. The Lurline will be berthed at Pier 19.

China Due Tomorrow Morning.

The Pacific Mail liner China will arrive at the port at an early hour tomorrow morning. It is the latest prediction by wireless received at the agency of H. Hackfeld & Company. The vessel will bring several hundred tons of cargo from China and Japan ports. While here the vessel will be supplied with 450 tons of coal. It is the intention to despatch the China for San Francisco about 5 o'clock in the evening. The vessel will take about a score of cabin passengers and will be supplied with a large accumulation of mail.

VON HOLT WINS YALE LETTER IN GAME SATURDAY

Herrmann von Holt, son of H. M. von Holt, and now a student at Yale, has won his big "Y," according to news received here this morning, and presumably it was won in the Yale-Princeton game last Saturday, in which Yale beat the Tigers 19 to 14.

A cable message received by Mr. von Holt this morning from George R. Carter, who went to see the game, says that Herrmann won his letter. Young von Holt played in the first game of the intercollegiate series early in October, but an accident to his wrist prevented further work until the end of October. He must have fully recovered to have been able to play on Saturday. His position is at right tackle.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

On the ground of non-support Annie Isala was given a divorce by Judge Whitney this morning from Ku Isala.

Circuit Judge Whitney today appointed William Carden administrator of the estate of Benjamin H. Watkins, under $3000 bond.

A meeting of the members of Harmony Lodge will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening in Odd Fellows' hall, Fort near King street.

The members of Leahi Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the Masonic Temple, Alakea and Hotel streets.

The Hawaiian Band will give a public concert in Emma Square this evening at 7:30 o'clock. "King Kalakaua," a march arranged by Kapellmeister Henri Berger, will be one of the features of the program.

Leong Chew, manager of Yee Chan & Co., recently returned from an extended business trip through the Orient, reports that he made extensive purchases and that much of the goods have already arrived, the majority of which are now being placed on sale to make room for future shipments. These goods embody fine Chinese silks and art goods particularly adaptable to the holiday trade.

Honolulu residents to the number of nearly 300 attended the funeral services of Henry Moses Kanlio, the late legislator, which were held yesterday from Silva's undertaking establishment. Interment was in the Puukamalii cemetery. The services were in charge of the Hui Poela Society, the local stevedore organization, and the Hawaiian Band was in attendance.

Alleging extreme cruelty, non-support and intemperance on the part of her husband, Antonia Rice has filed a petition in circuit court seeking a decree of divorce from Thomas Rice. There is an 18-months-old child, and the court has granted her additional demand for an injunction restraining the husband from visiting her or the child or causing her further trouble. She also asks custody of the child.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu who may be contemplating visiting in the East next February, and incidentally attending the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of America, will be interested in the following notice received this morning by the secretary of the local organization: "The annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of America will be held in the New Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., February 2, 4, and 5, 1915."

HARD CASE OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE

"It is as impossible for him to recover as it is to empty the ocean." These were the doctor's words to the partner of Andrew C. Larsen, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Larsen was down with Bright's disease; was water logged, having been tapped twice, and the doctor advised his partner to fix up his affairs. This was in 1904.

The treatment was changed to Fulton's Renal Compound, and in March, 1905, patient was back to business, to the surprise of his physician, and everyone else.

As to permanence, a letter from Larsen dated February, 1911, six years later, said: "I am in perfect health—haven't had a sick day for several years."

The ability of Fulton's Renal Compound to oppose Renal degeneration and reduce albumen in many cases of Bright's Disease is not a matter of opinion, but a FACT IN PHYSICS, and we will mail formula for albumen test that will show the percentage from week to week. As the albumen declines, improvement commonly follows, recoveries having been reported in thousands of cases. Formula and literature mailed on request. John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco—Advertisement.

Many were the misfortunes that beset the British freighter Strathgairn, an arrival at Honolulu today with 4531 tons of Australian coal, placed on board that vessel at Newcastle, N. S. W., during the latter part of last June. In steaming for the coast on Tuesday the Pacific Mail liner China will carry a large accumulation of mail.

BERNDT FORESEES TOURIST CROWDS FOR HAWAII, 1915

Tourist trade may be a little slack in Hawaii this winter, but early next year it will start up with a rush and the territory will be filled with visitors for most of 1915, according to the estimate of E. A. Berndt of W. W. Diamond & Co., who returned on the Sierra from a business trip to California.

"We are going to have more tourists here than we have ever dreamed of," he declares. "Everywhere people told me this: 'We are going to the San Francisco exposition next year and from there to Hawaii. We have been promising ourselves a Hawaii trip for a long time and now we are going to take it.'"

"The exposition is going to be a wonderful thing," says Mr. Berndt. He is brimming with enthusiasm over the prospects for the big 1915 fair and Hawaii's place in it. The Hawaii building is coming along finely. "And the colors of the exposition structures—they are marvelous! That whole mass of buildings looks as if it had been touched with a magician's wand. The glow and shimmer of color is simply indescribable."

Mr. Berndt included a visit to Los Angeles in his trip. He had a busy time and returns to Hawaii with a number of suggestions for promoting the tourist traffic.

MINIATURE YACHTS ARE MAKING KALAKAUA DAY RACE THIS AFTERNOON

Honoring the birthday of the late King Kalakaua, last male monarch of Hawaii, the Hui Moku Liliu, or Miniature Yacht Club, held its annual races in the harbor today. These races have been an event of the utmost importance for more than 20 years, and in celebration of the 78th anniversary of the birth of Kalakaua the ceremonies are being widely observed throughout the islands today.

On the harbor, in the vicinity of the Healan and Myrtle boat houses, the tiny canvas covered crafts are competing for honors this afternoon, with the miniature yacht owned by Delegate Kuhio figuring as a contender. Last year Prince Cupid's yacht finished second in this race, first honors going to William Hall.

A large number of persons are interested in this annual event and all are on hand this afternoon to witness the race for the "Kalakaua championship."

RAYMOND C. BROWN REPORTS PROWLER TO POLICE DEPT.

Raymond C. Brown, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, entered a complaint with Captain of Detectives Arthur McDuffie this morning regarding the actions of two men who, says Brown, were prowling around his home in Maunaloa last night shortly before 12 o'clock.

According to Mr. Brown Mrs. Brown was awakened at about 11:40 o'clock by someone scratching a match on the front panel. Mrs. Brown went to the window and asked who was there, and a man, who was tall and wore a slouch hat pulled well down over his eyes, answered that he was looking for a certain house. A short conversation ensued at the close of which the man left the house. As he reached the lawn, says Mr. Brown, he was joined by another man, and the two hurried toward the car line. Mr. Brown says that Maunaloa will have to have further police protection, or else the Maunaloa Improvement Club will have to organize a vigilance committee.

Following the discharge of about 1000 tons of cargo the Matsun Navigation steamer Matsunia returned to Honolulu from Hilo yesterday morning.

CITY RESPONDS TO RED CROSS SEAL INVADERS

Monday, have agreed to arbitrate.

At 9:15 this morning Secretary Rath began to get calls for more stamps and sent out reinforcements to the extent of a couple of dozen boxes or so to various districts.

Through the courtesy of Castle & Withington, Mr. Rath has established the red cross seal headquarters for the day in the offices of that firm.

At 9 o'clock this morning Mrs. Fax-on Bishop had sold $200 worth of the little adhesive crusaders in her downtown district, and the best was yet to come.

Mrs. Cheatham invaded the sanctuary of the tuberculosis bureau itself and retired with valuable booty. In fact, the board of health officers were the first to fall before the assault. The government offices in both the judiciary and capital buildings capitulated immediately afterwards.

Everything possible has been done to make the sale a success and merchants, ministers, officials and citizens of every other class have joined. Mr. Lennox, manager of N. S. Sachs & Co., inaugurated a window display of red cross subjects, in which the scepter of tuberculosis was laid away beneath the weight of public opinion and Hawaiian generosity.

Mr. Rath does not expect any figures showing the extent of the sale to be reached until the close of the day, but believes that almost every stamp will be sold. It is estimated that a
